WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

To Marry an Astor.

A cablegram received in Richmond yesterday from Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw, now in London, by her friends, makes the interesting announcement that she will wed Mr. Waldorf Astor, of England, eldest son of William Waldorf Astor, in April. Mrs. Shaw, who secured a legal separation from Robert Shaw, jr., Second, of Boston, several years ago, has for a year or more been living in England. One of her favorite sports is that of riding to hounds.

A year ago she was reported to be engaged to a wealthy English lord, and the announcement yesterday came as a complete surprise, although her father (Mr. C D. Langhorne) and her sister (Miss Nora Langhorne) arrived in Richmond only a few days ago from England. Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of New York, and Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins are also sisters of Mrs. Shaw. Young Astor lives in England, and, like all of his name, is immensely wealthy.

Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw got a divorce from Robert Gould Shaw II. on February 4, 1903. Nannie Langhorne was the third of the four beautiful Langhorne sisters, of Virginia, know as the "Gibson Girls," one of them marrying Charles Dana Gibson. Mr. Shaw was a young Boston society man, polo player and multi-millionaire, and at once upon their marriage, in October, 1897, the two became identified with the social set of Boston, New York, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw separated immediately after the Albemarle Horse Show, in August, 1902, Mrs. Shaw returning to her father, Chiswell D. Langhorne, at his country seat, Mirador, near Charlotesville, where she had been married, and on the following January 19 suit was brought against the wealthy Bostonian. The case was adjusted with the utmost secrecy, the only point of argument having been that of alimony. Mrs. Shaw was given custody of the child, Robert Gould Shaw III., besides an absolute divorce.

A week before her case appeared in the Circuit Court Mrs. Shaw sailed for Europe with her mother and her younger sister, Nora Langhorne.

Mrs. Shaw was only 18 years old at the time of her marriage. She is still known to be a capable horsewoman, and is fond of all outdoor sports. She and her sisters were models for many of Charles Dana Gibson's most admired pen-and-ink pictures.

Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw is the third daughter of Mr. Chiswell Dabney Langhorne, of Miridor, Albemarle county. She is of medium size, well-molded figure, as she has spent much of her time in the saddle, and is an athlete. She has a fair and fresh complexion that defies the sun and wind and her rich, red-brown hair is one of her striking features.

Mrs. Shaw spent her girlhood in Richmond and is noted for her hearty, unaffected manner. As a child she rode so boldly as to be the wonder of the Deep Run Hunt and later at Hyopia, Norfolk and Meadow Brook Hunts, became famous for her incomparable seat. She was the most brilliant rider at Virginia horse shows for several seasons and carried her Virginia hunters to England, where her bold and dashing feats attracted the attention and admiratton of British huntsmen.

Robert Gould Shaw, Second, is a son of Quincy A. Shaw and grandson of Col. Robert Gould Shaw, who commanded a regiment of Massachusetts negro troops in the civil war, and whose monument faces the Statehouse in Boston. The grandson became noted as a society man and a dashing polo player. His marriage to beautiful Nannie Witcher Langhorne, of Richmond, was the result of a meeting at Beverly, Mass., in 1896, while the Virginia belle was visiting school friends.

They were married October 27, 1897, the event being a brilliant one. In October, 1902, Mrs. Shaw began divorce proceedings, first on the ground of desertion, later changing this to a statutory charge.

The divorce was granted in the Albemarle County Court, and within three days Mr. Shaw married Mrs. Mary Converse, widow of C. Harry Converse, of Newton, Mass., and who, it was intimated, was mentioned in the first Mrs. Shaw's divorce bill.

Mr. Shaw, since the second wedding, has lived quietly, spending his winters in Boston or abroad and his summers at his stock farm, in Georgetown, Mass.

Strange Delusion.

Declaring that her life will be taken unless she assassinates President Roosevelt, a woman who gave her name as Mrs. W. B. Lewaller, of Philadelphia, applied at central police headquarters in New Orleans Wednesday for protection. She spoke rationally on all general subjects, but the police and coroner decided to detain her for an examination. Mrs. Lewaller said that she fell in with a party of socialists in Philadelphia, and that she was taken to a room there and made to take an oath against the President, being told that she would be destroyed if it were not executed. She said she fled to Houston, Tex., but the men followed her there, and that she had then come to New Orleans.

Smith Bust Accepted.

Governor Swanson on Wednesday sent a communication to the legislature announcing the gift to Virginia of a bust of Capt. John Smith, executed by the brilliant and accomplished soldier and sculptor, General Baden-Powell. The bust is now in the State Library. Upon motion of General Anderson the following resolution was adopted: "That the General Assembly of Virginia, appreciating the generosity of Hon. Charles Mayer, accepts the gift and directs the Governor, together with the Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate, to receive the bust with such ceremonies as they deem appropriate and to cause it to be suitably mounted in the rotunda of the Capitol as a memorial to the founder of the colony of Virginia."

The best safeguard against headaches, constipation and liver troubles is DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They don't gripe. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Will Deliver Addresses.

Annapolis, Md., March 9.—President Roosevelt has definately decided to come to Annapolis April 24 and deliver an address on the occasion of the transfer of the body of Admiral John Paul Jones from the temporary tomb at the Naval Academy. M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, will also speak at the ceremony. Other speakers will be Governor Warfield, of Maryland, and General Horace Porter, who was instrumental in the discovery of Jones's body buried in Paris and its subsequent transmittal to this country.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggests.

Charged with Selling Human Flesh.

Lisbon, March 9.—Advices from Buenos Ayres state that a Portuguese meat dealer named Jose Modeiry has been arrested there charged with murdering men and women and then selling their flesh as pork. Modeiry did a flourishing business until he fell into the hands of the law. The police found the remains of fourteen human bodies in Modeiry's shop. When the customers learned that they had been eating human flesh instead of pork, they tried to storm the jail and lynch the prisoner, but the police prevented the maddened people from wreaking vengeance.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 9, 1906.

CRIMINAL proceedings, in all probability, will be instituted by Attorney General Moody against President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railroad; H. O. Havemeyer, president of the sugar trust and officers of the Pennsylvania, the New York Central, the Reading, the Lackawanna and other eastern railroads, for conspiracy in restraint of trade, and for giving rebates. The Attorney General, in an official statement, announced yesterday that the evidence has been under consideration for several weeks, and that the department expects to take action. It is understood that subpoenas have been issued to various railroad and sugar trust officers and others, and that grand jury proceedings are well under way. The Attorney General, it is expected, will ask for indictments against the individuals responsible for the payment of the rebates in question, and those who participated in the conspiracy in violation of the anti-trust law, including President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania, and President Baer, of the Reading. The matter is now in the hands of the United States District Attorney, in New York, who will have charge of the prosecutions. The charge is made that the sugar trust and the railroads specified in the complaint entered into an agreement respecting rates, whereby the trust was enabled to send its sugar throughout the eastern and middle western States and undersell the products of the independent beet sugar refineries.

EXPORT figures furnished on Tuesday by the Department of Commerce and Labor fail to justify the widespread alarm among manufacturers regarding the effect of the Chinese boycott on American goods. Total exports for the seven months ending January, 1905, amounted to $23,432,948, whereas for the seven months ending January, 1906, they equalled $28,862,680, or a total increase of $5,429,732. The shipments of cotton cloth goods for the period first mentioned amounted to $12,947,580, while for the seven months ending January, 1906, they were $19,606,848. There was likewise an increase in the exports of copper ingots, the amounts being stated at $1,478,197 for the period ending January, 1905, and $3,195,850 for the period ending January, 1906. Still the administration is planning to throw a big army into China for no other reason that can be discerned than to provoke a war with that friendly nation.

HEAVY importations have removed the incubus of an almost continuous deficit from the minds of the republican leaders. Their fears that they would have to learn economy have been dissipated because imports have increased a great deal faster than Secretary Shaw or any one else supposed they would. For eight months of the fiscal year there is actually a small surplus. The expenditures have been three or four millions greater than last year, but there has been an increase of $25,000,000 in customs collections and of $5,000,000 in internal revenue collections, and a deficit of $25,000,000 has been turned into a surplus of one million. Concerning the state of affairs the Philadelphia Record says: "So long as the money can be got the republican leaders will not trouble themselves with retrenchment."

WITH a view to helping the farmers of the country, the banking and currency committee of the House of Representatives reported yesterday a bill authorizing the national banks to lend 25 per cent. of their surplus funds upon farm lands. The safety of the measure or the beneficial effects in rural districts certain to follow its enactment are not questioned, but it is not believed the bill can pass either house. Congress has steadily refused to authorize national banks to lend money upon real estate, and it is not likely to change its position merely to aid the agricultural sections.

THE CRY of "China for the Chinese" finds an unexpected echo in another part of the world. According to a writer in "The London Mail," there is unrest among the blacks of West Africa, fostered by negroes from the United States who entered Africa originally as missionaries, "but were not many months in the colonies before they dropped their religion and devoted themselves mainly to politics, beginning a propaganda of Africa for the Africans."

THE BEEF TRUST is still fighting against the admission of the evidence obtained by Commissioner Garfield, of the Bureau of Corporations. But Garfield's report showed that the trust did not suppress competition and was making an insignificant profit. Is it possible that they fear the facts they supplied to Mr. Garfield would suggest different conclusions to a jury and to the public?

IN A RECENT letter Mr. Andrew Carnegie said: "Beyond a competence for old age, which need not be great and may be very small, wealth lessens rather than increases human happiness. Millionaires who laugh are rare." Notwithstanding all of which the desire to become millionaires is by no means on the wane.

ONE of the chief reasons for the holding of the last constitutional convention was that the enormous court expenses with which the State is burdened might be lessened. This legislature don't view the matter in that light, for it has just created five new circuit judgeships and increased the salaries of other judges.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, March 9.

Henry H. Rogers and John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, left Washingotn this morning without confiding to the public the matters discussed at their conference with the President last night. In answer to questions by the newspapermen, Mr. Rogers remarked that he "had not a word to say." It is assumed that one of the topics of the conference was the forthcoming report of the Department of Commerce and Labor on the oil trust. Commissioner Garfield, of the Bureau of Corporations has been for mon hs conducting an investigation of the oil business of the country, with reference to alleged violations of the anti-trust laws by the Standard. It is understood that Mr. Garfield's inquiry is now about complete, and that the President has been made acquainted with much of the information which will be embodied in his report. Another matter which was probably brought up with the oil magnates by the President was the proposed investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission into the alleged combination of the railroads and the Standard Oil Company. It is believed that the President wished to sound Rogers and Archbold as to the attitude they would take with reference to this inquiry, whether they would answer the questions of the Commission voluntarily or whether it would be necessary to have an amendment passed by Congress to the Tillman joint resolution giving the Commission authority to compel testimony.

If some minds in the navy could influence Congress to understand their view of the naval requirements of the United States, the 59th Congress would appropriate money for the construction of five ships that would put the wonderful new 18,000-ton "Dreadnaught" battleship of the British navy and her forthcoming sister ships far in the shade. A new era has not exactly occurred in naval science with the construction of the "Dreadnought." United States experts have for at least two years in the recommendations of the general board and the reports of the bureau chiefs urged the biggest type of ship as the most economic and efficient kind of fighting vessel. The recommendations were fruitless and the most sizeable ship now authorized in the United States navy is 16,000 tons. It is stated that with a squadron of five such ships as is suggested, the North Atlantic fleet would be well nigh invincible against any armada that could come over seas. The U S. naval tactial unit is four ships, divisions of this number of vessels being manoeuvered alone in squadrons and fleet formations. With five ships of the 19,500 ton class, we could be in dockyard reserve and the four could stay in commission with full realization that for a few years at least no other navy could approach their efficiency.

The revolution in Santo Domingo will not down. The Navy Department today received a dispatch from Commander Southerland at Monte Christi stating that while the terms of the surrender recently negotiated were being carried out, the revolutionary leaders violated their promises and in the ensuing fight two officers, including General Cepin, and 6 men were killed. The dispatch does not state whether those killed were revolutionists or government adherents. The revolutionists escaped to the bush. This probably means an indefinite continuance of the trouble in the northern part of the republic.

Advices received by the War Department from Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the Philippine division, states that there has been a severe engagement in the island of Jolo between the American military and naval forces and the Moros. Eighteen American soldiers and two or three American sailors and about 600 natives were killed. Maj. Gen. Wood, and Brig. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, present throughout. Officials at the War Department were much excited this morning after the receipt of the dispatch from Manila telling of the severe three days' fighting.

It is reported that Representative Slemp has promised Colonel Pat McCall that he shall have the office of postmaster at Lynchburg. The postmaster at present is James McLaughlin, and he has the indorsement for reappointment of every business organization of Lynchburg, and three-fourths or more of the citizens independent of political creed. But it is understood that Colonel Slemp has said that Mr. McLaughlin must go, and will use all his influence to accomplish that end. If this is true Mr. McLaughlin might just as well be looking out for a new job.

President Roosevelt was invited this morning to visit Philadelphia on June 14th to participate in the celebration of Flag Day. John Quincy Adams and George C. Batcheller, secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the American Flag House and Betsy Rose Memorial Association, extended the invitation. Representatives Adams, McCreary and Mahon accompanied the visitors to the White House. The President said he would make the trip if he could possibly arrange it, but at the same time did not appear to be very sure of going. The association represented by Messrs Adams and Batcheller has purchased and paid $25,000 for the old house in Philadelphia wherein the first American Flag was made. The total number of contributions received to date by the association is $1,046,270. A plan is now on foot to secure the passage of a resolution by Congress accepting the Betsy Rose house for the government. If this resolution passes it is proposed to have the formal transfer take place on Flag Day.

The President sent to the Senate the following nominations this morning: Lieutenant-colonels to be brigadier generals, Lorenzo W. Cooke, Twenty-sixth infantry and Joseph M. Califf, artillery corps; Henry S. Turrill, deputa surgeon general; Crosby P Miller, deputy quartermaster general; colonel to be brigadier general, John W. Bubb, Twelfth infantry; to be surveyor-general of Wyoming, Alpheus P. Hanson, of Wyoming.

After a conference with the Attorney General Representative Townsend, of Michigan, has decided to adopt President Roosevelt's suggestion and to introduce a bill in the House to make more effective the provisions of the Tillman-Gillespie resolution, recently passed, providing for an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of railroad monoplies in coal and oil. "The bill upon which I am now at work, and which I hope to introduce late today," said Mr. Townsend, "will authortze the Interstate Commerce Commission to subpoena witnesses, enlarge their powers of taking testimony and appropriate $50,000 for the work." Mr. Townsend believes that the bill will be referred to the commerce committee and hopes to get action next week.

Assistance Secretary L. O. Murray, of the Department of Commerce and Labor and chairman of the federal commission appointed to investigate the wreck of the Valentia, off Vancouver, has returned to Washington this afternoon from Seattle, where the investigation was held. In a preliminary report to Secretary Metcalf, the commission urged the immediate improvement of the light of Tatoosh and of the lightship Umatilla, the establishment of a light at Forty Fathom and the construction of an ocean going tug for wreck saving purposes, to be stationed in Neah bay. The detailed report will be finished within ten days.

Representative Hay has been informed that the democratic committee of the Seventh Virginia district, has fixed on June 2nd as the date for the primary for the selection of a candidate for Congress. The Seventh is the first district to select a primary date this year. Mr. Hay has no opposition thus far, and will not have any so far as known, in which case he will be declared the nominee.

Opposition to the pending bill providing that all teams hauling two tons or more shall be equipped with 4 inch tires is being urged by many business men here.

At the suggestion of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, a convention will be held in Washington March 13 and 14 to consider consular reforms. It will be called the National Consular Reform Convention and delegates have been invited from all chambers of commerce, boards of trade, commercial exchanges and other merchants' manufacturers' and business men's associations in the United States. Action will be taken to bring pressure to bear on Congress to pass such laws as will improve the consular service. Representatives will be secured in each congressional district to carry on the work of reform in all parts of the United States.

George E. Green, a former State Senator of New York, who had been on trial in the District of Columbia Supreme Court for more than two weeks on charges of conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States and defraud the government in connection with the sale of time recording clocks to the Postoffice Department, was acquitted yesterday evening by a jury.

State Senator George E. Green, of New York, celebrated his acquittal in the postoffice case last night by giving a dinner at the Riggs House, in Washington, to his attorney and friends. District Attorney Baker was much disappointed over the verdict. There are three other indictments against Green but the District Attorney says that he is not likely to face a jury again for a long time.

Indictments charging grand larceny in the first degree and forgery in the third degree by Frederick A. Burnham, president; George D. Eldridge, first vice-president, and George Burnham, jr., second vice-president, of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, were found by the grand jury in New York yesterday. In all, five indictments were brought against each officer—two for alleged grand larceny and three for alleged forgery.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

The Senate yesterday passed the Caton bill creating a Department of Insurance in the State. The measure has now passed both branches of the General Assembly and will become a law. The Senate put in a few amendments of minor importance. It is believed that the matter of naming a commissioner, which is reserved to the Legislature, will be taken up at once, and last night the caucus named a candidate for that position—Col. Joseph Button, of Appomattox—who has for years been clerk of the State Senate.

The Senate, without dissent agreed to the report of the conferees on the supplemental appropriation bill, the effect of which is to reduce the increase in salaries of Supreme Court judges to $4,500, and to recede from the addition of $250 to the salary of the superintendent of the Eastern State Hospital and the modification of other Senate amendments.

General Anderson, of Richmond, moved to take up the report of the Corporation Commission investigating committee. Senator Tavenor opposed it on the ground of lack of time. After a lively discussion, the pending question was called and Judge Crump's forces won out by a vote of 19 to 14. General Anderson then moved to substitute the minority report made by Senator Sears for the report of the committee.

The Senate adopted by a vote of 29 to 5 the minority report submitted by Senator Sears, acquitting all of any intentional wrong in connection with the controversy and intimating that "a mountain has been made out of a mole hill." It is considered significant that the republican members of the body take the view that the report of the majority of the committee is unjustified.

The Senate passed the bill to authorize judges of circuit courts in cities of 40,000 inhabitants to provide an additional clerk.

A resolution providing for an extension of the session of the Senate one week was rejected. Senator Mann, of Nottoway, proposed the resolution for the reason that it will be impracticable for the House and Senate to complete the business now on the calendar within the present week. He asked for an immediate consideration of the resolution. The Senate refused to suspend the rules in order to consider the matter, thus insuring the end of the session at midnight Saturday night.

In order to facilitate business for the last days of the session, the following resolution was adopted:

"That, after today, members of the Senate will discontinue the consideration of bills on their calendars, which originated in each House, and will devote the remainder of the session to bills which have passed the other House."

The general primary bill was killed, as were the amendments of Judge Mann to the present liquor laws.

The Senate, by reconsidering the vote by which the bill was previously engrossed and then refusing to engross it again, killed the Sadler measure to allow additional compensation to clerks of courts for services as clerks of boards of supervisors.

Bills were passed:

To make the possession of a United States internal revenue tax receipt for the sale of ardent spirits prima facie evidence of sale.

To prevent the killing, capturing or sale of wild turkeys, partridges and pheasants, and providing penalties therefor.

The Senate passed the following House bills:

To amend section 6, Chapter 598, of act for working roads in Alexandria county.

To repeal an act entitled an act to create a board of excise commissioners for Alexandria county.

To require telegraph companies to receive and transmit messages; providing a penalty for failure to do so.

To provide for the expense of removing, supporting and maintaining insane persons.

To declare the effect of the death of the drawer of a check.

To amend and re-enact section 444 of the code as to erroneous assessments of lands.

To amend and re-enact an act, approved March 12, 1904, in relation to changing boundaries of wards in cities.

HOUSE.

A verbal combat between Delegates Massie and Royall, republican floor leader of the House, created considerable stir in the House yesterday. The incident was in connection with the discussion of the Caton rolling stock bill. Mr. Royall, like most of the country members, was in favor of the provisions of the bill apportioning the taxes among the counties. Mr. Massie referred to Mr. Royall's remarks as a stump speech, and Mr. Royall replied to what he regarded as Mr. Massie's offensive and ungentlemanly language.

Mr. Massie demanded a retraction and Mr. Royall declared he would only retract when Mr. Massie withdrew his "offensive" remark in regard to stump speaking and a personal difficulty seemed imminent. Chirman Cardwell deftly took hold of the situation, but with all his ingenuity could not bring about an apology.

When Mr. Caton brought his rolling stock tax bill to the attention of the House he declared that his bill had been set aside several times to advance other important bills, that it was now "up to" the House to dispose of it and its opponents to discuss it. On these terms the bill came up and was hammered by its opponents from Roanoke and Richmond, in spite of which it was sent to its third reading and engrossment by a good vote.

Half an hour later Mr. Royall arose to another question of personal privilege. Everybody feared a recrudescence of the controversy, but quite the contrary was the case. Mr. Royall explained that his previous words had been uttered in the heat of debate and that he regretted them. He sought the privilege of retracting them. Mr. Massie responded with equal grace, characterizing Mr. Royall's remarks as "not only manly, but most gentlemanly."

Dr. R. S. Powell's bill, removing the State license tax of $10 a year upon practicing physicians, was again before the House and was passed. The bill does not interfere with the local license tax imposed by cities.

It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and cure the mucous membrances of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Mr. Barrett got through the House a bill amending the Sunday selling feature, so as to restore jail punishment for violation.

Mr. Barrett moved to take up his bill regulating the closing of barrooms, but it was lost.

The Bland firemen's relief bill, appropriating $2,500 annually for the relief of volunteer firemen injured while actually in service, was passed, and communicated to the Senate by the patron. The member is very happy over his victory, having fought for the measure for the past ten years. The vote on the bill was 64 to 7.

The following bills were passed by the House:

To make fire insurance companies and corporations prima facie liable for the value of the property insured by them.

To provide for private hospitals and sanitariums, how they shall be established, and to insure the rights of superintendents, resident physicians of the same, and of State hospitals for the insane as regards patients' mail, etc.

To require registrars to certify true lists of all persons registered in their respective districts or wards between January 1, 1904, and the third Tuesday in May, 1906, to the clerks of the circuit, hustings or corporation courts of their counties, cities or towns; to provide for the recordation of such lists by the clerks and fixing their compensation therefor.

Also the Senate bill to regulate the business of lending money on household and kitchen furniture, household goods, wearing apparel, sewing machines, musical instruments, or wages and salaries, on conditional sales of the same, and the buying of salaries and wages.

An appropriation of $100,000 to the Jamestown Exposion was agreed to in both houses of the General Assembly yesterday. This assures the appropriation.

Senator Shands has arranged for a trip of the members of the Senate to Jamestown, on Monday. The party will leave at 7 o'clock in the morning by steamer, and will go directly to Jamestown and then to Newport News, where they will take the train back to Richmond, arriving there about 8 o'clock in the evening.

Today's Telegraphic News

To Fight U. S. Machinery Company.

Boston, March 9.—A deal, which may almost revolutionize the shoe machinery manufacturing industry and be of great importance to shoe manufacturers all over the world, is said to be about to be put through, with Lynn as headquarters.

Thomas G. Plant and other large capitalists are alleged to be behind the project. The scheme is the formation of a great corporation to fight the United Shoe Machinery Company, which has large factories at Beverly and other places and agencies all over the country. It is said to be the largest shoe machinery manufacturing company in the world and also the only one in the world that manufactures the different kinds of really up-to-date shoe machinery. The project referred to is creating great interest in the Lynn shoe district. According to the understanding there of the scheme its aim is to bring into the world the only real competition the United Shoe Machinery people have yet felt.

The Texas Way.

Clarendon, Tex., March 9.—"That's the way we do in Kansas," called a negro to a companion as he forced two young white women to step into the slush of the street to get around him. The girls went home and repeated his sneering remark. Last night a score of determined men called on him and without ceremony laid 75 lashes on his bare back, taking turns at wielding the raw-hide. When the job was finished the leader remarked to the negro: "That's the way we do in Texas," and advised him to leave by the first train. He did so and the Pan Handle will probably be freed from the colored population as a result, as Clarendon has been the only town in this section that has allowed negroes in it.

New Russian Loan.

London, March 9.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at St. Petersburg wires that Herr Mendelsohnn, the German banker, who is in that city, has agreed to raise a new Russian loan in Germany. The loan will bear 5½ per cent. and the issue price will be 92. Herr Mendelsohnn has been menaced by revolutionists continually during his stay in St. Petersburg. He took with him four of the best detectives in Berlin when he went to St. Petersburg in order that he might be protected. He has also been closely guarded by the police at the special order of Premier Witte.

Crisis in France.

Paris, March 9.—M. Poincaire, who has held the positions of Finance Minister and Minister of Public Instruction in previous French cabinets, was summoned to the Elysee Palace today by President Fallieres. On leaving the palace M. Poincaire said that President Fallieres had merely asked his opinion in regard to the organization of a new ministry. President Fallieres then summoned Deputy Sarrien, to whom it is understood the premiership was offered yesterday, for another conference in regard to the cabinet crisis.

Shipping Combine Intact.

Plymouth, Eng., March 9.—J. Bruce Ismay, head of the International Mercantile Marine Company, who landed here today from the Hamburg-American liner America, which touched at this port on her way from New York to Hamburg, declared that the winding up of the underwriting syndicate, as announced some time ago, would not affect the shipping combine. The combine, he said, is as strong today as it ever was, if not stronger.

The Railroad Rate Bill.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—The lower branch of the legislature today concurred in the action of the Senate when it passed the Churchman two cent railroad rate bill which now goes to the Governor for his signature. The measure establishing the two cent passenger rate provides that 500 mile books shall be purchased, transferable to any member of a family or household, with the proviso that unused mileage shall be redeemed by the railroad within fifteen days of presentation of such unused mileage. The Governor will sign the bill.

The House today passed the Machen resolution amending the constitution to provide ninety day sessions of the legislature.

Judge Crump's Exoneration.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, March 9.—The House today, after a long debate, by an overwhelming vote concurred in the action of the Senate and adopted the minority report of the investigating committee, signed by Senators Boyd and Sears, mildly censuring Judge Crump in the Coporation Commission matter. Mr. Lyon, of Prince William, led the fight for the opposition, but the House swept over him in a storm. All efforts to pass by and postpone were absolutely futile and while there was no roll call the temper of the body was shown early in the fight. The galleries were crowded and the action was loudly applauded from both there and the floor.

Shot Her Sister.

Atlanta, Ga., March 9.—Mrs. Willie Standifer, wife of E. M. Standifer, of the American Canning Company, this morning, went to the house of her married sister, Mrs. D. H. Duram, entered the room of her unmarried sister, Miss Willie Whixnant, 18 years old, pulled a pistol and shot her four times, killing her instantly. It is alleged that Mrs. Standifor was jealous of her youngest sister on account of her husband. Mrs. Standifor has been arrested, as has also her husband.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 9.—The stock market after its strong opening continued its upward movement practically all through the first hour, making gains in nearly all the stocks traded in, ranging from one to four points over yesterday's closing prices. The general assumption was that the strength was due to more favorable Moroccan news.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 9.

SENATE

When the Senate met at 11 o'clock this morning in recess session from yesterday, Mr. Beveridge continued his advocacy of the joint statehood bill. Notwithstanding the early hour meeting, the public and private galleries were crowded and a large number of Senators were in their seats. Exactly at noon general debate on the measure closed and the legislative day of Friday was begun. The debate was then continued under the ten minute rule. Voting on the bill will begin at 4 o'clock. It is expected that Senator Foraker's amendment providing for submission of the joint statehood plan of New Mexico and Arizona to a popular vote of those two territories will be adopted by a majority of between 8 to 12 votes.

In concluding, Mr. Beveridge said that the measure was the composite of the best thought among statesmen and that while it might be temporarily embarrassed, it could not be defeated by the Senate or by Congress for it was the sentiment of the patriotic mind of the country.

"No power on earth can turn back the wheels of progress," he exclaimed. As he took his seat, the crowds in the galleries applauded loudly, until admonished by the Chair that such demonstrations were not permitted.

The Senator from Indiana was warmly congratulated by his fellow Senators.

Thd first feeling noticeable during the long contest came with the introduction of petitions. Mr. Beveridge had a pile of telegrams upon his desk. They were from the Governor of Arizona, and residents there urging joint statehood. He was having them read, one by one, and commenting thereon.

Mr. Teller objected. He claimed that this was an infringement upon the previous agreement limiting debate.

Mr. Beveridge claimed his right to present and comment upon petitions. The chair ruled that objection would prevent.

Mr. Beveridge warmly declared that he would then in his own right, notify the Senate that he had hundreds of telegrams from people of Arizona petitioning for statehood with New Mexico.

Mr. Foraker, leader of the opposition to the measure, was on his feet at once. "We have thousands protesting against that very thing," he exclaimed. "I have one telegram advising me that the Senator from Indiana wired his friends in Arizona, praying that they would deluge the Senate today with 800 telegrams." (Laughter.)

The Ohio Senator then took the floor to protest "against the attempt to take a people by the scruff of the neck and force them into a union against their wishes, and over their protests."

HOUSE.

The House agreed not to hold a session tomorrow, Saturday. Mr. Littauer, from the committee on appropriations, submitted the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, carrying over twenty-nine million dollars. It will come up next week. Pension bills to the number of 408 were then considered.

By a vote of six to six the House committee on judiciary today refused to report out the Randell bill, prohibiting members of Congress, or Judges, from accepting and railroad, steamboat, telegraph and express companies from giving any passes or franks, or things of value. The motion will be renewed when a full meeting of the committee can be had.

Mary Ivy St. Clair, an English actress, who a few days ago reached this country with Frank West, a negro horse trainer and palmist, were married in a magistrate's court in Philadelphia yesterday. She came on the steamer Merion with West, intending to marry him in Montreal, but the immigration authorities threatened to deport her unless the ceremony were performed immediately. "I love you, Frank," she pleaded, putting her arms around the negro's neck. "What difference does it make whether we are married now or a few weeks later?" As soon as she was released after the marriage the bride and bridegroom went to a boarding house.

Crushed by Automobile.

The Marchioness of Corsini, formerly Princess Barberini, was killed in Rome yesterday evening by the overturning of an automobile in which she was riding with her husband, who is King Victor Emmanuel's master of horse.

The marchioness, who was sixty-two years of age, was driving the automobile, her husband, aged sixty-nine years, siting beside her. While crossing a bridge in the suburbs, seeing a cart approaching, the marchioness essayed to turn out to give the cart safe roadway, but ran the automobile into the parapet of the bridge with such violence that the parapet gave way and the automobile was thrown from the bridge into the ditch, fifteen feet below, turning over as it fell. The marquis and the chauffeur escaped without a scratch, but the marchioness was crushed to death.

Death of Mrs. Brager.

Mrs. Isabella Brager, widow of Joseph Brager, died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at a sanatorium on Eutaw Place, Baltimore. Mrs. Brager was taken suddenly ill last Sunday and was placed in the sanatorium Monday morning, where it was found necessary to perform an operation. The operation was successful, and for a few days she seemed to improve. Wednesday complications set in and she grew gradually worse. Mrs. Brager was born in Alexandria 70 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyman. She married the late Jos. Brager in Baltimore in 1855. Until last Sunday she had enjoyed good health. Mrs. Brager is survived by five children—two sons (Mr. Albert A. Brager and Mr. Lewis L. Brager) and three daughters (Mrs. E. Goldsmith, of this city; Mrs. Sam Ganss, of Washington, and Mrs. M. J. Waterman, of Baltimore). She is also survived by 15 grand-children and one great-grandchild. The deceased was domestic in her tastes, and devoted much of her time to charitable work in some of the Baltimore institutions. Mrs. Brager lived in Alexandria until 1896, after which time she resided with her daughter, Mrs. Waterman, in Baltimore. The funeral will take place Sunday from the home of Mrs. Waterman. Rev. Adolph Guttmacher, of the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, will conduct the services.

The late Emanuel Wyman, father of Mrs. Brager will be remembered by many Alexandrians. Over forty years ago he conducted the clothing and furnishing business in a store near that now occupied by Mr. E. Goldsmith. The later returned to Baltimore where he became prominent in politics and held several official positions.

Great Falls & Old Dominion R. R

The Great Falls and Old Dominion electric railway was formally opened Wednesday afternoon, the first regular trip over the line, as far as Difficult Run, having been made at 1:50 o'clock. Although there had been no announcement made by the road officials that the cars would be in operation on that day, quite a number of persons patronized the line. Several of the officials of the road spent most of the afternoon on the cars. Having obtained the right of way through the property of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company, the road officials will have a gang of workmen upon the property at once getting the roadbed in shape. It is expected the last mile of the road will be completed, and that cars will run through to Great Falls by the 1st of May. Shelter houses have already been erected at a number of stations. At Difficult Run, the temporary terminus of the road, there is a steel bridge 460 feet long and 75 feet high at its highest point.

Death of Mr. Goebel.

Mr. Charles Goebel, an old resident of Alexandria, died last night at Confederate Veterans' Hall, of which he had recently been janitor. The deceased was born in Germany 76 years ago, but came to this country early in life. He was a tinner by trade, and was a member of the Confederate army during the civil war. Some time after the close of hostilities he took up his residence in this city He was at one time employed by Mr. R. T. Lucas in his store in the old City Hotel building; he also worked for Mr. James H. Mansfield as a tinner. After the purchase of the building on upper Prince street for Confederate Veterans' Hall he became janitor, and one of his duties was to keep the ground around the Confederate Monument at Prince and Washington streets in order. The deceased leaves a widow and a daughter.

To Forbid Sale of Intoxicants.

The House District of Columbia committee has unanimously decided to grant a hearing on the bill introduced by Representative Webber of Ohio to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the District. The bill, if enacted into law, would make Washington the dryest city in the United States. The sale of intoxicating liquors at any hour of the day or night or on any day of the week, except on the prescription of a physician, is absolutely forbidden. Mr. Webber and some District temperance advocates will be notified by the committee of the date of the hearing, which will be decided upon later in the week.

Inspection of Steamer Norfolk.

The steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington line was given her annual inspection by the officials of the United States steamboat inspection service at Washington yesterday. The inspection, like that of the Washington, the sister boat of the Norfolk, a day or two before, was a searching one, the inspectors examining all the life-saving and firefighting equipment of the vessel with much care. The usual boiler tests were also made, and as the steamer was found in the best of order she will be licensed to carry passengers on the Potomac river and Chesapeake bay for another year.

He recently received a letter from one of them which is as follows:

Society Women Easy to Kiss.

A young, smooth-faced man, dressed in women's clothes, has made a good bet that he could kiss seven society women of Pottsville, Pa., without any resistance from them. Wednesday, while many women were passing up and down Sentre street, one of them was astonished to have a strange young woman slip under the umbrella she was carrying, with a friendly remark on the weather. Before they had proceeded far the stranger had her (his) arms around the woman and when she (he) parted with her at the corner planted a hearty kiss on her lips. This was repeated with six other women. All of them thought the strange woman was some acquaintance they had forgotten, and they did not learn their mistake until they received the very masculine kiss.

Appropriation Bills

The House yesterday passed the Indian appropriation bill carrying $7,785,528. It then proceeded to tangle itself over the bill to abolish the grade of lieutenant general in the army. The result was an adjournment for lack of a quorum, after members had been locked in the hall for a half hour, and the assistant sergeant-at-arms had been scurrying to the various hotels in search of members. The vote to consider the bill showed an overwhelming sentiment in its favor, and as it is the pending business under call of committees, it will probably be reached and passed in due course.

An appropriation bill carrying $191,358,848 for the postal service was finally agreed upon yesterday by the House committee on postoffices and postroads, and will be reported to the House in about 10 days The bill is practically as it came from the sub committee which drew it. Two important law provisions are carried in the measure, one forbidding the government departments franking anything through the mails which an individual cannot mail at regular postage rates and the other prevents committees, organizations or associations of citizens from enjoying the franking privileges.

The House committee on appropriations agreed yesterday to report a legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill carrying appropriations aggregating $29,134,181, as against $29,822,580 for 1906. The amount agreed on is a reduction of $1,135,573 from the estimates submitted to the committee by the various departments. Salaries are carried in the bill for 65 less persons than were provided for in the last bill, and the number of salaries contemplated in the estimates was reduced 236 by the committee Many limitations on the appropriations are stipulated. The most radical of these is designed to relieve the department payrolls of high-salaried aged clerks. It provides that no clerk over 65 years old is to receive more than $1,400 a year; no clerk over 68 years more than $1,200 and no clerk over 70 more than $840. After June 13, 1913, no person in the classified service more than 70 years old is to be retained in any department.

Oppose Preacher's Confirmation.

The reappointment of Rev. Hamilton W. Kinzer as postmaster at Front Royal, Warren county, which was sent to the Senate Wednesday by President Roosevelt, has caused surprise and consternation among republicans of that county, many of whom are in open revolt against their part.

C. L. Pritchard, a party man, had received the indorsement of the Seventh district patronage referees, and it was believed Pritchard would get the plum. Kinzer has been the postmaster at Front Royal for 12 years, and if confirmed by the Senate will begin his fourth term. His reappointment was opposed by many of the patrons of the office.

Kinzer is a superannuated minister of the Baltimore conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, and, it is said, drew largely upon the church influence in securing reappointment to office. His victory has caused a split in the Methodist church at Front Royal, one faction supporting Kinzer and another opposing it.

Protests against Kinzer's reappointment were made to the Postoffice Department by over 200 business men of Front Royal, and more than 100 sworn affidavits setting forth alleged errors and mismanagement in the conduct of the Front Royal postoffice were filed with department officials at Washington.

British Empire's Growth

As the outcome of a suggestion by Joseph Chamberlain when he held the post of colonial secretary, a unique Blue Book was published yesterday recording and tabulating in 300 pages 40 years' growth of the British Empire as revealed by the census of 1901. The Blue Book shows that since 1861 the area of the empire has increased from 8,500,000 to nearly 12,000,000 square miles and the population from 250,000,000 to 400,000,000, of which only 54,000,000 are white and 58,000,000 Christians. The tables convey interesting information as to birth rate, proportion of sexes, religious and social conditions in various parts of the empire.

Father George Tyrrell, of Washington, has withdrawn from the society of Jesus because of his unwillingness to repudiate parts of his writings which did not meet with the approval of his superiors.

The managers of Harry Tenny, the pugilist who died in San Francisco after his fight with Frankie Neil, have been held responsible for his death by a coroner's jury.

The New Jersey court of pardons met in Trenton, N. J, this afternoon and after a brief session, commuted Mrs. Tolla's sentence to seven and a half years.

Hobbes and Geometry.

Hobbes was not yet fifteen when he went to Oxford. He did not much care for logic, yet he learned it and thought himself a good disputant. There is no reason to think he learned anything else at Oxford save a strong dislike of academic institutions and methods. He turned from the official studies to amuse himself with geography and voyages. As to mathematics, there was no official recognition of them at all while Hobbes was at the university, so there is nothing improbable in the statement that Hobbes had never opened a copy of Euclid until he was near middle age. The story is best told in Aubrey's own words:

"He was forty years old when he looked on geometry, which happened accidentally. Being in a gentleman's library, 'Euclid's Elements' lay open, and it was the forty-seventh proposition Lib. I, so he read the proposition. 'By George,' says he, 'this is impossible!' So he read the demonstration of it, which referred him back to another, which he also read, 'et sic deinceps,' that at last he was demonstratively convinced of that truth. This made him in love with geometry."

The Oldest Tale of a Tub.

The cynics, so called from the Greek word for a dog, were a rude, snarling sect of so called philosophers, who despised riches, the arts and all culture. Among these Diogenes was conspicuous. He was born in 412 B. C., and when a man he dressed in a coarse robe, which covered him day and night, and carried a wooden bowl and a bag for his alms and his food. His home was a large tub discarded from the temple of Cybele, a huge earthen jar, that had held wine or oil for the services and sacrifices of the temple. Though cracked and patched, it was large enough to hold him lying at full length. The story goes that Alexander the Great came up to him one day and asked what he could do for him. "Don't stand between me and the sun," was the curt reply, upon which the emperor is said to have exclaimed, "If I were not Alexander I would be Diogenes!"

Lightning as a Rock Driller.

"Lightning when in the mood has an ugly habit of drilling," writes an English observer. "It will drill the hardest rock, rock which would turn cold steel, and not only drill but vitrify it. They have found in Cumberland channels from thirty feet deep and from two to four inches in circumference. The interior was hard and glazed where the solid substance had been melted by the stabbing flashes. Artificial experiment has shown that a powerful shock from a battery will vitrify finely powdered glass, but not feldspar or quartz. The lightning, however, does it in the manner described—not in one place, but in many, showing that before striking the ground it divided into several branches, each strong enough to penetrate and liquefy the solid rock."

In a Man's Pockets.

A fairly well equipped gentleman true to his calling and to his friends carries quite a kit of tools. There are a jackknife, a match box, a cigar cutter, a nail file, a corkscrew, a finger nail tool and possibly a cigar holder and some good five centers to give away. And yet women wonder what he finds to put in his pockets. To facilitate further the business of just hanging around he must have a little money, a handkerchief, bunch of keys, fountain pen, some lead pencils and sharpener, eyeglasses, notebook, watch, old letters, papers of more or less supposed value and a cardcase. Not one pocket could be spared unless it is the one on his nightshirt, and that looks so sweet.—Clay Center (Kan.) Times.

Told by the Watch.

To tell the points of the compass by a watch point the hour hand at the sun; then south is halfway between the hour hand and the figure 12 of the dial. To measure an angle by a watch lay two straight edged pieces of paper on the angle, crossing at the apex. Holding them where they overlap, lay them on the face of the watch, with the apex at the center. Read the angle by the minutes of the dial, each minute being six degrees of arc. It is easy to measure within two or three degrees in this way.

Why His Head Didn't Ring.

Two Scotsmen turning a corner came into collision. The shock stunned one of them. He pulled off his hat and, laying his hand on his brow, said: "Sic a blow. My heid's a-ringing again."

"Nae wonder," said his companion. "Your heid was aye empty—that makes it ring. My heid disna ring a bit."

"How could it ring," said the other, "seein' it was aye crackit?"—Scottish American.

Long Words.

The longest words in English are short by comparison with certain monstrosities in other languages. It is common in German to use compounds which, although not involved or cumbersome in meaning, look alarmingly long, and it is said that one Sanskrit word has no less than 152 syllables.

The Wise Wife.

Mrs. Tom—I wouldn't let my husband have his own way as yours does, Mrs. Dick—Does he? Mrs. Tom—I heard him say so today. Mrs. Dick (softly)—I'm glad he thinks so. I've been a long time teaching him that.

Quite Solid.

"Let me see a plain wedding ring."

"Solid?"

"You bet I'm solid. We've been engaged more'n a month."

Excessive anger against human stupidity is itself one of the most provoking of all forms of stupidity.—Von Radowitz.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

The Cruel Plant.

A Canadian climber, the Physianthus albens, has received the name of "cruel plant" from its ill treatment of butterflies. It flowers in the month of August, and the butterflies, attracted by the perfume, hover around it in large numbers and push their trunks into the corollas to sip the honey. A pair of sensitive vegetable pinchers in the heart of the flower grips the delicate proboscis, and in spite of struggles to get free the butterfly hangs suspended until it dies. Apparently the plant has nothing to gain by the death of the insect, as it is not carnivorous, like the Venus fly trap. In fact, if the butterfly were allowed to come and go it would tend to foster the species by assisting cross fertilization. It appears, however, that the "cruel plant" came originally from Brazil, where the butterflies are much stronger and extricate their suckers from the trap. We may add that another Canadian plant, the Cnicus discolor, is charged with cruelty. The flower has a gland which secretes a viscous liquid capable of liming insects which are fond of it. Moreover, they seem to be stupefied and poisoned by it, and no reason can as yet be assigned for the deadly consequence.

A Colossal Harp.

The largest harp ever made, so far as is known, was that invented and constructed by M. Veritan, provost of Burkli, near Basel. It was known as the gigantic meteorological Æolian harp. It was 320 feet in length and was erected in the garden of its inventor in 1787. This harp consisted of fifteen iron wires, 320 feet in length, stretched between two poles. The wires were from two to three inches apart, the largest being one-sixth of an inch in thickness and the smallest one-twelfth of an inch. They were placed in the direction of north and south and inclined in such a manner as to form an angle of from twenty to thirty degrees with the horizon, being stretched by means of rollers properly disposed for the purpose. Whenever the weather changed the wires sounded with such loudness that it was impossible to go on with a concert in the house. The sound sometimes represented the hissing noise of water in rapid ebullition, sometimes that of a harmonicon and sometimes that of distant chimes or an organ.

The First Hats.

Discoursing on the subject of hats an antiquary expressed the opinion that the hat was first used quite as much for decoration as for protection. The ancestor of all hats he considers to have been the fillet, or band, around the hair worn by the ancient Greeks, among others. Probably the first hint gained by men regarding head ornaments was through observing the crests, plumes and antlers of various birds and beasts. The eastern races, with their fondness for ceremony and display, afford the most notable instances of the use of hats as signs of rank and authority. Thus in Buddhist countries the gods are represented as wearing elaborate forms of headgear. In Korea the fashion attains its height, no fewer than fifty kinds of hats being worn by the natives as indications of their social position.

The Horse's Hoof.

In its present elaborate form the hoof of a horse is the most perfect instrument of support which has been devised in the animal kingdom to uphold a large and swiftly moving animal in its passage over the ground. The original toe nail and the neighboring soft parts connected with it have been modified into a structure which in an extraordinary manner combines solidity with elasticity, so that it may strike violent blows upon the hard surface of the earth without harm. The result is that the horse can carry a greater weight at a swifter speed than any other animal approaching it in size.

A Hatter's Trick.

"There are tricks in every trade, you know," said a New York clubman. "Even in retail hat selling many dodges are employed.

"I said to a hatter one day:

"'I don't see how you can afford to iron for nothing all the silk hats you sell.'

"The man nodded at me gravely.

"'We have to do it, sir,' he said. 'The hats would last too long if we didn't.'"

The Last Word.

"Does your wife insist on having the last word?" asked the person who indulges in impertinent questions.

"Not at all," answered Mr. Meekton. "It is quite customary for me to close the conversation with 'very well,' or some such remark, to indicate that I understand what Henrietta intends to convey."—Washington Star.

Took the Hint.

"This seems like a sweet dream," he rapturously remarked as he lingered with her at the doorstep.

"It doesn't seem like a dream to me," she replied, "for a dream soon vanishes, you know."

He vanished.

He Knew Her.

"I can't decide," she said, "whether to take the hat or not, but it is just the dearest thing I've seen this season."

"The dearest?" asked the husband, with a sardonic laugh. "Then it's certain that you'll take it."

Nothing New.

"Do you believe in original sin?"

"No; there's no such thing. They've all been used hundreds of times."—Cleveland Leader.

Duty puts a clear sky over every man, into which the skylark of happiness always goes singing.—Prentice.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LIVING TOO HASTILY

AMERICAN WOMEN BREAK DOWN

Irregularities and Female Derangements Result—Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not one woman in twenty-five but that suffers from some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.

No woman can be amiable, light-hearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacements, spinal weakness or diseased organs.

Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all sunshine is driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—female trouble.

Read this letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my health and brought on extreme nervousness and despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. Day by day I improved in health while taking it until I was entirely cured. I can attend to my social and household duties and thoroughly enjoy life once more, as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, without an ache or a pain."—Mrs. Chester Curry, 49 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

At the first indication of ill health, painful or irregular periods, pain in the side, headache, backache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues," secure at once a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

No possible harm can result from its use. Price 50c. and $1.00, at leading drug stores or by mail. National Toilet Company, Paris, Tenn.

Stonewall Jackson's Way.

The death on February 26, in Baltimore, of Dr. John Williamson Palmer, poet, prose writer, editor and physician, in the eighty-first year of his age, recalls the facts that he was a native of Baltimore, a graduate of the University School of Medicine, a Confederate soldier, a world-wide traveler and one of the editors of the Century and Standard dictionaries. Probably one of the best remembered of his poems is the following:

STONEWALL JACKSON'S WAY.

Come, stack arms, men. Pile on the rails,
Stir up the campfire bright;
No growling if the canteen fails,
We'll make a roaring night.
Here Shenandoah brawls along,
There burly Blue Ridge echoes strong,
To swell the brigade's rousing song
Of "Stonewall Jackson's way!"

We see him now—the queer slouched hat
Cocked o'er his eye askew;
The shrewd, dry smile; the speech so pat,
So calm, so blunt, so true.
The Blue Light Elder knows 'em well;
Says he, "That's Banks—he's fond of shell,
Lord save his soul; we'll give him—" Well,
That's Stonewall Jackson's way."

Silence! ground arms; kneel all, caps off!
Old Blue Light's going to pray.
Strangle the fool that dares to scoff!
Attention! It's his way.
Appealing from his native sod,
Informa pauperis, to God—
"Lay bare thy arm; stretch forth thy rod!
Amen!" That's Stonewall Jackson's way.

He's in the saddle now. Fall in!
Steady! the whole brigade!
Hill's at the ford—cut off; we'll win
His way out, ball and blade!
What matter if our shoes are worn?
What matter if our feet are torn?
Quick step! we're with him before morn.
That's Stonewall Jackson's way.

The sun's bright lances rout the mists
Of morning, and, by George!
Here's Longstreet, struggling in the mists,
Hemmed in an ugly gorge.
Pope and his Dutchmen, whipped before.
"Bayonets and grape!" hear Stonewall roar;
"Charge, Stuart! Pay off Ashby's score!"
In Stonewall Jackson's way.

Ah, maidens, wait and watch and yearn
For news of Stonewall's band!
Ah, widow, read with eyes that burn
That ring upon thy hand!
Ah, wife, sew on, pray on, hope on!
Thy life shall not be all forlorn;
The foe had better ne'er been born
That gets in Stonewall Jackson's way.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shanick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quick changes from hot to cold and back again try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest and positive remedy contains no cocaine, mercury, nor other harmful ingredient. The worst cases are cured in a short time.
